

Course Description

Faculty: Educational Sciences

Study program: Bachelor in Teacher in Primary Education

Course Title: Education theory

Course Credits: 6 ECTS

Language of Instruction: Albanian

Course Description: This course aims to provide a scientific and detailed overview of the basic concepts of the Education theory and their concrete use in everyday life. During this course students will gain knowledge about the aspects of family education, creating healthy families and a successful child in life; the nature and reasons why children lie; the types and abuses of children; the role of school in the quality of education and the influence of the nature of the teacher on the formation of children's personality.

Course Goals: To enable students to talk about the influence of social-environmental conditions on the educational process; explain the reasons for child abuse, the types of abuse and the dramatic consequences for them; to discuss the importance of family and school education in the formation of human personality.

Course Requirements:

Participation in seminars
Individual poster presentation
Power point presentation in group

Grading:

Seminars: 10 %
Individual/group assignments & Presentations: 30 %
Final Exam: 60 %

Course Schedule:

Two lectures per week.
Two seminars per week.
Lectures are optional.
Seminar attendance is 75%.