

Course Description

Faculty: Faculty of Social Science

Study program: Albanian Language and Literature's Professional Master

Course Title: Albanian Language's Didactic

Course Credits: 5 ECTS

Language of Instruction: Albanian

Course Description: The Albanian Language's Didactic Course aims to enable the professional training of Albanian Language students. This course breaks down the standards and specific objectives related to the learning of the Albanian language according to the link and structure of this today's lesson in the Albanian school.

Course Goals: Evaluating the Albanian language as the basic subject in the entire pre-university education system of the Albanian school, as the key in all success and the student's progress, her teaching takes on a special importance. Through learning the mother language, the students are trained to communicate effectively for various purposes, revealing their own and others experiences, feelings and ideas giving meaning of thinking through oral and written. Supporting on this evaluation, the Albanian language's didactic lesson at school are offered to students and teachers of the Albanian language by conveying principles, criteria, standards, information, strategies, techniques, methods and variety forms of work so that the teaching and learning the Albanian language at school becomes interactive and successful.

Course Requirements: Activation in seminar sessions and attendance . Coursework. Exam

Grading: Attendance: Activation in seminar sessions and attendance - 10 points

Continuous control: Test during the semester: 30 points

Exam: 60 points

Course Schedule: The student must attend 75% of lectures and seminars. In another case, any absence must be justifiable. He should be active in the seminars, either with the preparation of a topic, or in the development of exercises. This helps the student earn points during the semester.